Jacqueline Lesser Faust

With 20 years of industry experience, Jackie Lesser Faust is a consultant and coach who brings strong insight into human behavior and tools necessary for successful transformational change. She has dedicated herself to inspiring people to perform beyond their perceived limitations and believes in empowering clients to develop the skills and techniques necessary to fully realize their true personal and professional goals.

Working with business leaders, high potential execs, entrepreneurs and teams within organizations, Jackie helps to clarify their vision, connect with it and create actionable items that when aligned with corporate goals and objectives will create growth, development and increased profitability. Formerly with the Judge Group, a nationally recognized staffing and consulting firm, Jackie held various sales and management positions using her coaching skills to maximize human potential.

As an Organizational Change Agent and Executive Coach, Jackie provides tools and guidance that help leaders thrive during times of transition, and become effective change agents who optimize personal, professional and organizational performance. Her high-impact approach focuses on results; assesses and evaluates the competencies and conditions necessary for success; clarifies goals and intentions; and leads to actionable plans to produce desired outcomes.

Jackie has two decades of experience working with people around change. She is highly experienced in human performance, staffing, leadership and employee development as well as training. She has an undergraduate degree in psychology and business administration as well as an MBA from Drexel with a concentration in Human Resources Management. Jackie is certified by the Coaches Training Institute and is a member of the International Coach Federation.

Jackie can be reached at (877) 405-7288 or at jlesser@chatsworthconsulting.com.
